About a fake website that pretends to get Rs.500 by sharing a website link

Over the last few days, a link to a website called Marathi Online Work has suddenly gone viral on WhatsApp. Link - www.marathionline.work

Preliminary investigations have revealed that the website is completely fake and promises to get paid through the website. You are asked to register on this site by entering your mobile number and name and a link is given to share on WhatsApp status. It is said to earn Rs. 500 per day.

What exactly is wrong with this -

- 1) This website was launched only 6 to 7 days ago. The domain and hosting are taken from a foreign country and the details are hidden.
- 2) The main purpose of this website is just to collect people's data and sell it.
- 3) After registration, this site sends the user to different advertising sites.

People should not fall prey to the misconceptions of such websites. This data is misused. Also do not share these sites.

This website is not only for Marathi but has been created in many Indian languages, some of which are still running, and some have been shut down by the respective states.

It also includes

Kannada www.kannadaonline.work

Bangla www.banglaonline.work

Telugu www.teluguonline.work
